

Disclaimer for the company Toffee Tec GmbH

1. Content of our Online offer

Toffee Tec GmbH cannot guarantee the currency, correctness, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against Toffee Tec GmbH, which are related to damage of a material or ideal nature, are through the use or non-use of the provided information or caused through the use of incorrect or incomplete information are categorically excluded, provided that there is no evidence of wilful intent or gross negligence on the part of Toffee Tec GmbH.

All offers are subject to change and non-binding. Toffee Tec GmbH explicitly reserves the right to change, supplement, erase or temporarily or irrevocably discontinue parts of a page or the complete offer without special announcement.

2. References und Links

For direct or indirect references on other Web pages ("Hyperlinks"), which are beyond the accountability field of this Homepage, Toffee Tec GmbH is only liable in cases where Toffee Tec GmbH has knowledge of the content and it is technically possible and reasonable for Toffee Tec GmbH to prevent the use thereof in the case of unlawful content.

Toffee Tec GmbH herewith expressly declares that at the point in time of the setting up of the link, no illegal contents were detectable on the linked/referenced pages. Toffee Tec GmbH has no influence over current or future designs, content or the authorship of the linked pages. Toffee Tec GmbH, therefore and herewith, expressly distances itself from all content on all linked/referenced pages, which are altered after the links were set up. This declaration is valid for all links and references within set links and references in our own Internet offers as well as for entries made by others in the Toffee Tec GmbH guest books, discussion forums and mailing lists. The linked page vendor, and not the Website provider, is solely responsible for any illegal, inaccurate or incomplete content and especially for damages occurring through the use or disuse of such information offered.

3. Copyright and labelling laws

Toffee Tec GmbH strives to adhere to the copyright laws in all its graphics, tone documentations, video sequencing and texts. Toffee Tec GmbH creates its own graphics, tone documentations, video sequencing and texts or utilizes freeware graphics, tone documentations, video sequencing and texts. All protected brand names and trademarks mentioned in the Internet offer are unrestrictedly subject to the terms of the respective and valid labelling laws and the ownership rights of the respective registered owners. It is not to be assumed that because a brand name is mentioned, it is not legally protected by a third party!

The copyright for publicised, and from Toffee Tec GmbH compiled objects is that of Toffee Tec GmbH alone. Duplication or use of such graphics, tone documentations, video sequencing and texts in other electronic or printed publications without the explicit permission of Toffee Tec GmbH is not allowed.

4. Privacy

Provided that there is a possibility to enter personal or business data (e-mail addresses, names, address) within the Internet offer, this is done by the user on an explicitly voluntary basis. Claims and payment of all services offered are – as far as technically possible and reasonable – even without the statement of such data or anonym data or that given under a pseudonym, permitted. The use of details within the framework of the publisher details or similar published details such as postal addresses, telephone and fax numbers as well as e-mail addresses through a third party for the sending of information not expressly requested is not permitted. We reserve the right to take legal measures against those senders of so-called spam mails that violate this regulation.

5. Legal effects of this disclaimer

This disclaimer is to be regarded as part of the Internet offer from which this page was referenced. In the case of parts of, or individual formulations of the text not, no longer or not completely meeting the applicable legal position, the remainder of the document remains unaffected in its content and validity.
